COME CHRIST COME

Finally, there is laid up for me the crown of righteousness, which the Lord, the righteous Judge, will give to me on that Day, and not to me only but also to all who have loved His appearing.

-- 2 Tim 4:8

This is the first get-away retreat since the pandemic, and we have truly witnessed the Lord's blessings from beginning to the end.

The two brothers used four messages to carry out this year's burden: Come! Christ, Come!

In the first message the brother fellowshipped on the coming of the Lord, and reminded us that we have the heavenly life in us which makes us citizens of the heavenly kingdom. So today we should lead a heavenly living on earth and press toward the heavenly goal.

In the second message, the brother fellowshipped on the coming Lord who will come like a thief. We also acknowledged His being when He comes again, and by seeing this we know we need to prepare ourselves to become vessels for honour to prepare for His coming.

The third meeting was about the crises the Church is facing in the last days, which includes backsliding from God's love, compromising and sacrificing the word of God, and corrupting ourselves and our offspring spiritually. But we praise the Lord that there's a way to go against the stream, that is to love our Lord with all our first love.

The last message was let the church be the church. In order for the church to be God's testimony on the earth, we need to let the truth be the truth, that is to let God's word dwell in us richly;

we also need to let the brothers be the brothers, that is to have brotherly love toward one another, and not just treating one another as coworkers; and we need to let the Lord be the Lord, that is to fully follow the Spirit's leading, not just blindly doing what we are used to doing.

We praise the Lord for His speaking in the past weekend which sparked a fire and repentance in each of the young people's heart! May the Holy Spirit help us to keep this fire burning, and continue to do the work of revival in the church!

Maranatha! Oh Lord Jesus, come!

The amazing thing was that the Spirit revealed to us not just through the messages but even through the songs we picked spontaneously in singspiration, through seemingly random activities we did like starting a campfire (which proved to be a strong illustration of revival fire), through fellowship, through the discussion questions our issues, and our church's issues why our church today is so lukewarm and backsliding from God's love and how this is corrupting ourselves and our future offspring. -- Peter Wang

I need to recognize the greatness of His salvation and His kingdom to come!

-- Eric Liu

How we live our lives today should reflect our vigilance and preparation for the Lord's return, lest we fall asleep and miss the Bright and Morning Star.

-- Caitlin Wong

Praise the Lord for His Spirit moving among the Young People during this year's CCC, igniting the fire within our hearts to love His appearing and prepare ourselves fully each day.

-- Jean Zhai

Revive us, Oh Lord!!! May we be a church that You desire! May You be our only goal, only hope, and our first love. -- Samuel Wong
